DAILY GAZETTE.

A Report from the Enemy.

A gentleman just returned from New Orleans via. Montgomery, called on the Philadelphia Inquirer on the 23d inst., and communicated many important and interesting items of intelligence as to the operations, etc., of the southern rebels.

All through the south they are abundantly supplied with firearms of the Minie and Enfield patterns.

Since September last there have been large and steady importations of English and Belgium arms into New Orleans, Mobile, and other southern ports.

They have ample supplies of powder, and, in fact of all the munitions of war. The cannon seized at Norfolk have been conveyed to all important points in the seceded states that would be likely to suffer from an invasion.

As many guns as could be spared have been removed from Charleston harbor and sent to Pensacola, where they have been mounted in the batteries.

General Bragg has sixty mortars bearing point blank upon Fort Pickens. The railroad from Montgomery to Pensacola was completed two weeks ago yesterday.

Large numbers of cavalry are now concentrating at the latter point, and the infantry are being withdrawn and sent north.

The object of concentrating the cavalry at Pensacola is probably to more effectually resist the landing of the United States troops. For a similar purpose sand-bag batteries have been erected for a number of miles along the shore.

For a number of months past the women and children have been busily occupied in sewing and filling their sand bags.

The government troops under Col. Brown have been equally busy in throwing up sand batteries on Santa Rosa Island, having been supplied with sand bags by the U. S. transport Atlantic. Their exertions have so far proved successful that all the outworks of fortification are now thoroughly protected.

The rebels have an especial dread of the U. S. troops which recently arrived from Texas, having witnessed their flying artillery drill on Santa Rosa Island.

The rebel forces now at Pickens under Bragg is estimated to be about 8000, one-fourth of which consists of cavalry.

The authorities at Montgomery estimate that with their present organization they are able to put 175,000 men into the field, fully equipped and armed, and with ammunition for one year. Our informant states that he has every reason to believe that they do not exaggerate their strength.

"I was present yesterday at an interview between Gen. Prentiss and a Kentucky merchant of secession proclivities. The latter was here to see about some freight which he had on the Fred Lorenz, of whose detention I gave you an account yesterday. 'I do not,' said the Kentuckian, 'think it right that citizens of a state not yet seceded, should be prevented from receiving their shipments, especially, when it is known that we are in want of breadstuffs.' 'Can you,' replied the general, 'give me any assurance that these articles will not be forwarded into Tennessee for the use of those who are endeavoring to subvert the authority of the government?' 'I cannot,' rejoined the merchant, 'give any assurance where they will go, when I sell them.'—'Then,' answered the general, 'that settles the question. I wish you, sir, however, to distinctly understand me; I wage no war against the Union men of Kentucky, or of any other state. Go back, sir, to your home, and tell every Union man, woman and child in Kentucky, if they want food, to come to me, and I will feed them all. But, sir, I desire to say to you in an equally positive and emphatic manner that if I catch a secessionist here, daring to utter treasonable sentiments in the presence of my troops, I will put him in the guard house; he shall then have a speedy trial, and if proven guilty, the transition from thence to the GALLOWS will be as easy and natural, as it will be certain and merited. On this, sir, all secessionists and traitors may most assuredly rely.' This ended the interview."

INCENDIARISM IN THIS COUNTY.—About 2 o'clock on Thursday morning of last week, the dwelling and saloon in the town of Roxbury, Dane county, near the east end of the Sauk City bridge, was burned to the ground. The owner (whose name, as near as we can learn, is Henbarger, or Umbarger,) was intending to move it in a day or two. What makes the matter especially aggravating was that he lost by fire, only two months ago, another building standing on the same site as the last, and the one just consumed was built from subscriptions among the citizens of Sauk city. The loss on both buildings is from $1500 to $1800. Both fires are believed to have been the work of an incendiary.—Madison Argus.

THE MICHIGAN REGIMENT.—Major Wilkins, of the Michigan regiment, writing to Gov. Blair, from Washington, says:

"I have had occasion during the execution of this duty, to witness the encampments and movements of large bodies of state troops at different points throughout Ohio and Pennsylvania, and I can safely say that our regimennt is very far superior in arms, equipment, clothing, drill and discipline to any of the troops I have seen. At these encampments, large bodies of men are concentrated without arms, uniforms or experienced drill officers—only involving the state in a heavy expense, without increasing its effective military strength.—Our regiment moves, prepared at all points for service; its appearance has been a theme of universal commendation wherever it has passed, and the end has fully justified the wisdom and prudence of the governor and his military advisers, in taking pains first to thoroughly arm and equip their troops before they sent them into the field."

THE JAPANESE TYCOON MARRIED.—The Japan correspondent of the New York Herald says:

"The Tycoon was married on the 4th of March to the lovely, beautiful and accomplished only daughter of the Mikado, the Spiritual Emperor of the Empire. The Tycoon is four months the senior of the bride, the former being eighteen the present month. Hoz-hi-me is the family name of the Tycoon. He is entitled to eleven more wives, or mosemas, according to the laws of the realm."

The Queen's Proclamation.

This is a cool production. The queen's government sees nothing but "contending parties" and "said states" in the fight.—There are no rebels. The defenders of a lawful government are put upon an equality with conspirators. The law of nations are applied to the contest, ignoring the fact that there is but one nation engaged in it. Loyal Americans are just as good as secessionists, and no better; and the Queen warns her "loving subjects" not to interfere with either "party," on pain of her high displeasure. That is not the way a friend talks. It is an enemy that speaks. We recollect indulging in ardent sympathies with England in her struggle during the East India rebellion; we fear we did the Sepoys injustice—we ought not to have cared which whipped. We remember a wish that the Atlantic might be bridged, but the desire has vanished. Our prayer is, for a gulf deep as the pit called bottomless; and a wall, high as the battlements of heaven, between the loyal American people and the English island, while governed by a selfish and cold-hearted oligarchy.

Banks and Currency.

Since the determination manifested by the people to demand gold for their wheat, and more especially since the publication of the bank comptroller's report, showing the value of the securities in his hands from each bank, a vigorous effort has been made by several of our leading bankers to place their institutions on a proper footing. We learn that the Milwaukee banks, and the Rock County Bank of this city, have all made the securities required with the bank comptroller, in gold, to the amount of their circulation. This will place these banks upon a firm footing in the confidence of the people.

This is a wise policy on the part of these banks, and will generally be followed, we understand, by all the sound banks of the state. As soon as it is done, the community will feel that confidence in them which is so necessary to a return to a profitable and healthy business on their part. In order to accomplish this desirable object, it is understood that there is a disposition on the part of the wealthier banks to render any reasonable assistance to those banks which are not, at this time, able to respond promptly to the call of the bank comptroller.

We have no doubt that as fast as these securities are made good the bills of the banks making them will be regarded as good as gold, and we hope to see them put into general circulation. The public will place confidence in our bankers, if the bills of well secured banks are paid out freely, while those issued by institutions of doubtful character, are retired from circulation and the banks wound up, if they are not able to conform to the requirements of the Bank Comptroller. Bankers ought not to expect confidence in their intentions if they withhold it from the public, and manifest a hesitancy in paying out their best currency.

From the best information we can get we feel satisfied that there is a general determination on the part of the wealthiest banks to sustain the list which has been guaranteed till the first of December, and now received on deposit by the banks. If they do this in good faith, it will go far to redeem our system from discredit, and place our currency upon a firm basis. At that time the amendments to the banking law will have been adopted which legalize a central redemption; we may thus escape the financial chaos which now reigns at Chicago. We are disposed to have faith in our bankers, but we must have works on their part to keep our faith good.

PARDONED.—Arthur Rice, who plead guilty to forgery at Racine circuit court, April term, 1860, and was sentenced to two years in the state prison from April 28, 1860, has been pardoned out by the governor.

FLAG FOR THE WHITE HOUSE.—The ladies of Washington have prepared a magnificent flag, which they propose to present to the President to be floated from the White House. The dimensions of the banner will be thirty-six by fifty-four feet, and will cost about $300. On the occasion of the presentation it is expected that there will be a dress parade of all the forces in Washington, except those on guard duty.

Mary W. Dennis, five feet two inches in height, is 1st. lieutenant in the Stillwater company, Minnesota. She baffled even the inspection of the surgeon of the regiment in discovering her sex, but was recognized by a St. Paul printer, who became shockingly frightened at her threats of vengeance upon him if he exposed her, and he decamped.

From the New York Tribune of Friday.

Arrival of the U. S. Steamship Keystone State.

The blockading fleet at Fortress Monroe—Women and children driven out of Virginia—Portsmouth, Va., subjugated by Georgia troops—Sad degeneracy of the Old Dominion—A slave insurrection imminent—An English prize brought in.

The United States steamship Keystone State, Capt. French, arrived yesterday afternoon at the navy yard, in this city, having left Norfolk harbor on Wednesday morning. The following vessels were at Fortress Monroe: Frigates Minnesota and Cumberland, brig Perry, and gun-boats Star and Yankee.

The Keystone State towed from Fortress Monroe the brig Hiawatha, of and for Liverpool, loaded with tobacco. The Hiawatha attempted to run by the fleet on Sunday morning, when the Star fired a shot across her bows. To this the brig paid no attention. The flag-ship Minnesota, Com. Stringham then fired ahead of the brig without effect; it was only when a second shot from the Minnesota went whizzing through the rigging that the Hiawatha was brought to. She was found to be heavily loaded with tobacco, and was sent home in charge of Lieut. Russell and a prize crew.

The Keystone State reports the blockade at Norfolk as effective and belligerent. All the officers and men of the various ships were anxious for a fight, and especially desire to exterminate the rebel batteries along the coast. The Keystone was sent from from Washington to bring a number of women and children from Portsmouth, who had asked for some means of conveyance to the north. On arriving alongside the Minnesota, on Saturday last, a tug-boat, bearing a flag of truce, was sent to the city to bring off the refugees. The white flag was fired at several times by the rebels, but they eventually let her pass. When the captain made known his errand to the authorities, he was told to go back to the Minnesota immediately, and report that the women and children would be sent off on Monday, but that neither the tug nor any other vessel would be allowed to approach the city again.

On Monday afternoon 115 women and children and two men were sent off from the city to the Keystone State in an old scow that could scarcely keep afloat. They were literally packed in with the little baggage which they were allowed to take, like so many cattle, but were received on board the Keystone State in the most hospitable manner, and unanimously speak in terms of the highest praise of the officers and men of that vessel for the kind manner in which they were treated while on board the ship. The entire vessel was at their disposal, and everything was done to make their situation as comfortable as possible.

Many of these refugees are the families of men who had previously been compelled to fly from Portsmouth to save their lives. Several left at the time of the burning of the navy, having been employed there. Others leave husbands, fathers, sons or brothers still in the city who are unable to get away. They had but a few hours' notice, and were obliged to depart with what few things they could hastily get together, and are thankful to have got into a civilized country again without suffering bodily harm.

They report a fearful state of things in Portsmouth, the city being held in complete subjection by a mob of Georgia soldiers. Women dared not walk the streets after sundown, and were often insulted in the grossest manner by the soldiers while sitting on their own doorsteps. Many of them had money due them from persons in the navy yard, and when compelled to go for it, were subjected to the greatest indignities. Commodore French, who is in command of the navy yard, is represented as an old libertine, who encourages his men in their beastialities by his own conduct.

The refugees state that there are hundreds of staunch Union men in Portsmouth, whose daily prayer is that the secession bands may be driven from their midst.—These men are kept in subjection and constant fear for their lives by the Georgia soldiers, who occupy the navy yard and adjacent fields. It is believed that, were it not for the soldiers, Portsmouth would give a fair majority for the Union. Union men, however, are told that if they dare to vote or talk for the Union, they will be killed instantly. Several New Yorkers have been forced to take up arms against their own flag, but firmly declare they will never fire a bullet at it.

Provisions in the city are so scarce that money will not buy them. Poor citizens, particularly those who are suspected of being opposed to secession, have been scarcely able to get enough to eat to keep them alive. The authorities have established a sort of distributing office, where such food as can be obtained is doled out to citizens in pitiful quantities. It consists principally of meal, pork and herring—most of which is obtained from the navy yard. There has been but little, if any, fresh meat offered for sale in the city, and butter cannot be had at any price.

The navy yard has been pretty thoroughly repaired, and many heavy guns have been planted outside at various points. There are between seven and eight thousand men in that vicinity, and it is said that in case of an attack, the force could be increased to twenty thousand in twenty-four hours. The west side of the yard, where an attack by land is anticipated, has been pierced for musketry, and heavy guns brought to bear upon its approaches.—Many of the slaves have been armed and equipped by the rebels, who claim that they cannot confide in them. The refugees, however, are quite certain that the first blow struck at Norfolk will be the signal for the turning of the slaves upon their masters. The slaves say but little about their plans, but are known to have frequent secret meetings. They express a great desire to obtain arms, and waste but little of the ammunition furnished them.

There have been several vessels sunk in the harbor to prevent the entrance of a fleet. Several Union men in the city have offered to remove these if they can be protected by the guns of the fleet while engaged in the operation. The Keystone State brings but a small portion of those who are anxious to leave Portsmouth. In addition to their fear of secessionists, the Portsmouth people are apprehensive of a rising among the slaves, which they think would be more terrible than even the bombardment of the city. Hundreds would fly to the north immediately, sacrificing everything they possess, if there was any means of conveyance which they could take.

There are many of the citizens, and many of the women too, who are rank secessionists, and would do anything in the world to kill off the government soldiers when they land. They threaten to poison all the wells, and all the food in the navy yard, at the first sign of the defeat of their forces, and the refugees think this will be one of the greatest dangers to which our soldiers will be exposed in Virginia.

The officers of the Keystone State do not appear to think that the skirmishing at Sewall's Point has been very serious yet on either side. On Saturday night last the Star (late Monticello) ran up opposite the battery and was fired upon. She immediately returned the fire, and a brisk cannonading was kept up for some time, the shot from the steamer appearing to be more accurate than those fired by the rebels. Eventually the firing on land ceased, and the rebels took to their heels. The Star lay off the battery all night and all day Sunday, when it was discovered that the rebels were at work repairing damages. A few shot were exchanged, but nothing serious resulted. It was thought by those on board the Star that three or four of the rebels were killed during the cannonading on Saturday, but nothing was known positively. Two of the federal troops were slightly wounded by splinters, but none were killed, as reported. The commander of the Star is anxious for a fight, and thinks if it was worth while he could silence the Sewall's Point battery in a short time, if he set about it in earnest. The Keystone State will take on troops and stores to-day, and immediately depart, but her destination has not been positively decided upon.

Telegraphic.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, May 27.

Schuyler Colfax has just arrived here from Indiana for the purpose of urging the government to accept the services of six regiments of volunteers from that State.

The cabinet has been in session to-day on the question of appointing Gov. Banks and John C. Fremont to Major Generals in the army. No decision yet.

Special to Commercial.—The bridges of the Orange & Alexandria railroad, and the Hampshire & London railroad have been destroyed for twenty miles.

The 7th regiment is ordered south to-morrow.

The rebels are evidently preparing for action. Reports received this forenoon say that they are throwing up entrenchments at the Manassas Gap Junction, and secessionists in Alexandria are loudly boasting to-day that they will soon be relieved by the advance of rebel troops from Richmond.—The government, however, is prepared at all points to check any movement of the enemy.

It is understood that any movement of Gen. Lee for throwing rebel forces forward from Richmond in the direction of Manassas Gap, or Harper's Ferry will promptly be followed by an attack of Gen. Butler's forces on Norfolk. Richmond is the aim of Butler, and it is reported that he intends occupying it by the 20th of July. General Patterson will throw large masses of troops from Chambersburg down the Maryland line in the direction of Harper's Ferry, in order to check any movement from that point. There are 300 federal troops at the Relay House near Baltimore. They can hold that place against great odds. Large scouting parties are sent out by federal officers every night as far as Point of Rocks.

WASHINGTON, May 27.

The New York 5th and 28th regiments are two miles beyond Alexandria on the line of the railroad.

A car loaded with provisions and eighteen secession soldiers on board in citizens' dress has been brought to Alexandria. A man who was seized by the Zouaves three miles from that city, with a secession flag was made by them to carry it on a pole to the Marshall House, and then trampled on it. The man was then placed in custody.

Another military movement is on foot, but the government keeps it strictly secret. Harper's Ferry advices say that the rebels there are greatly alarmed at the government movements, and expect a general attack.

NEW YORK, May 27.

Capt. Miller, of the barque Sarah, was arrested to-day, charged with fitting out that vessel for the slave trade.

A roll of one of the Zouave regiments has not been heard of for ten days, and $2,400 raised for the regiments is also missing.

MECHANICSVILLE, May 27.

Funeral of Col. Ellsworth took place to-day, and was attended by an immense concourse of people, military and friends from various parts of the state. Impressive services were held at the grave.

BOSTON, May 27.

Steamer Massachusetts sailed to day for Fort Pickens, with a crew of 124 men and 100 extra seamen for the fleet, and a large amount of munitions of war.

WASHINGTON, May 27.

Steamer Minnesota was expected to leave Fortress Monroe to-day for the blockade of Charleston. Two or three other vessels will soon follow.

A passenger who left Richmond yesterday, arrived here this forenoon by way of Mennassa Gap, and says the train on which he travelled brought 1000 South Carolina troops to the Gap, and that the entire number of confederate troops there was estimated at 5,000.

They are tolerably well armed and equipped and were throwing up embankments in anticipation of an attack.

The report was that the federal troops would move towards Harper's Ferry by that route.

One of the captured secessionists confirms the report that on Saturday afternoon about 700 secessionists were but a few miles from Arlington, but retired when they discovered the federal troops coming over from Washington. This is reliable.

ERIE, Pa., May 27.

Another large vessel reported ashore 12 miles down the lake.

NASHVILLE, May 27.

A private despatch to the Daily Gazette says there was fighting at Harper's Ferry on Saturday evening, in which the enemy were repulsed.

On Sunday a fight took place at Hampton, near Fortress Monroe, and 600 of Lincoln's troops were killed and wounded.—The confederate loss was only 50.

The steamer Ætna arrived. The following is the proclamation of Queen Victoria:

Whereas, We are happily at peace with all sovereign powers and states, and

Whereas, Hostilities have unhappily commenced between the government of the United States, and certain states styling themselves "confederate states of America," and

Whereas, We being at peace with the government of the United States, have declared our royal determination to maintain a strict impartial neutrality in the contest between said contesting parties.

Therefore, We have thought it best, by and with the advice of our privy council, to issue this our royal proclamation, and we hereby warn all our royal subjects and all persons whatever entitled to our protection that if any of them shall presume in contemplation of this proclamation and of our high displeasure to do any acts in derogation of their duty as subjects of a neutral sovereign in this contest, or in violation or contravention of the law of nations, and more especially by entering service of either contending party as commissioned or non-commissioned officers or soldiers, or by serving as officers, sailors or marines on board any ship or vessel of war, or transport of, or in service of either contending party, or by engaging to, or going to any place beyond seas with intent to enlist, or engage in any such service, or by procuring or attempting to procure within her majesty's dominions, at home or abroad, or by fitting out any ship or vessel, to be employed as ship of war or privateer, or transport, by either contending party, or by breaking or attempting to break any blockade lawfully and actually established by or on behalf of either of the said contending parties, or by carrying officers, soldiers, despatches, arms, military stores or materials, or any article considered and deemed to be contraband of war according to law or modern usage of nations, for the use of either of said contending parties, all parties so offending shall incur and be liable to the several penalties and penal consequences by the said states or by the law of nations in that behalf imposed, and we do hereby declare that all our subjects and persons entitled to our protection who may misconduct themselves in the premises will do so at their peril, and of their own wrong, and they will in no wise obtain any protection from us against any liabilities or penal consequences, but will on the contrary incur our displeasure by such misconduct.

Given at Richmond Park, May 13th.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, May 27.

Private advices from Tennessee represent the rebels very jubilant over reported victories in Virginia, in which Lincoln's troops are said to have been repulsed with great loss; and spurred on by this new enthusiasm, the concentration of troops for a dash upon Cairo was rapidly progressing. They hope to repulse our troops here, and then entrench themselves in this town.—These advices have created some excitement in town, and military activity is doubled. This evening the levee is swarmed with men at work with shovels and barrows. The Pittsburg guns, unfortunately, cannot be mounted—their carriages not having arrived. The St. Louis guns are in position at the point. Our effective armament is thus too small to admit of the wherewithal of a battery for occupation of Bird's Point, though it is hoped the Point may be permanently occupied to-morrow.

It is reported that troops are on the way from Indianapolis. That Chicago gunboats will be here to-morrow, and that steamers chartered by government will arrive from St. Louis, bringing more guns.—All eyes turn anxiously down the Mississippi river, and we are warned to look out for squalls in that direction.

INDEPENDENCE, May 27.

Many United States officers in New Mexico have resigned.

Capt. Roberts, one of the contractors of the mail line from Canon City, brought in with him $7,500 in gold dust for parties in the east, and also ninety letters. This line is now in running order from Independence to Canon City and California Gulch. The coach leaves here every Friday, and passes over one of the best roads in the west.

Some Indians were seen on the route, but they were peaceable and quiet. Grass is abundant.

WASHINGTON, May 27.

The mails for the south are made up here, and prior to the 1st of June will, if possible be got to their destination via the west.

The treasury department, immediately after the opening of the proposals on Saturday, commenced informing the successful bidders of the result. The secretary accepted all bids for bonds placed at 85 and upwards, and awarded the remainder to the bidders for the treasury notes at or above par. They were awarded of bonds, $6,753,000, and of treasury notes, $2,241,000.

CHAMBERSBURGH, May 27.

Ex-Governor Thomas has been nominated for Congress at Frederick, Md. He is an unconditional Union man.

BALTIMORE, May 27.

The western trains on the Baltimore and Ohio road, just in, report the destruction of the track incorrect. Virginia troops were distributed along the country roads north of Harper's Ferry; also on northern approaches to Maryland Heights. The outposts and pickets extend much further. Gen. Johnson superintends these movements in person.

Twenty-two additional pieces of cannon have arrived from Winchester.

5,000 troops are at Grafton; 10,000 at Richmond, under Gen. Lee; 12,000 are at Fredericksburg.

FRANKFORT, May 27.

The border state convention met to-day. John J. Crittenden was appointed chairman, and Orlando Brown secretary. Delegates were present from Missouri and Kentucky. The convention adjourned until to-morrow, to await the arrival of delegates on their way hither.

FREEPORT, Ill., May 27.

During the severe thunder storm of Saturday night a bolt struck the quarters occupied by the Rockford company at Camp Scott, instantly killing Wm. H. Labarre, of the Rockford Rifles, and injuring several others sleeping near him.

The body of Chas. Morris, drowned on Friday, was recovered yesterday. The remains of both were conveyed to the depot last evening under military escort, and thence to their homes at Marengo and Rockford.

BALTIMORE, May 26.

Martial law has been proclaimed at Alexandria. Citizens are assured they will be protected in their persons and property.

The pickets were again fired on last night.

It is said the New York 7th regiment will return home on Wednesday, their month's service being up.

Strong and extensive entrenchments are being erected by the United States troops on the Virginia Heights. They entirely command the approaches from Alexandria.

The Marshall House is the hotel at which Gen. Washington stopped. Col. Ellsworth was shot near the door of the chamber Gen. Washington occupied.

Special Despatch to the New York Herald.

WASHINGTON, May 26.

Gen. Scott issued a general order, giving the credit of the occupation of Alexandria and Arlington Heights to Gen. Mansfield, who both planned and executed the movements.

After divine service in the 7th regiment camp this morning, the chaplain put himself at the head of his congregation and marched them to work on the entrenchments.

BALTIMORE, May 26.

The steamer Adelaide has arrived form Norfolk.

Gen. Butler was reinforced yesterday by 3,000 troops from New York and Maine.

When the Adelaide left, it was understood that Norfolk would be attacked on Monday. The rebels there are confident they can hold Norfolk against any force.

The bridge connecting Old Point Comfort and Hampton has been burned by the rebels. No communication is allowed between Portsmouth and Norfolk.

NEW YORK, May 27.

World's Washington dispatch—It is reported that last night one of the advance pickets of the Zouaves was attacked by about 20 men. After several rounds the secessionists fled, but not until six of them were captured by the Zouaves.

Times' dispatch—The inhabitants of Alexandria are sullen and disaffected. The only ones with smiling faces are the "peculiar institution."

Several large forts are being constructed at Alexandria. The New York 69th regiment have thrown up a bank a mile long and seven feet high.

It is determined to order twenty thousand more volunteers to Washington.

BALTIMORE, May 27.

In the case of John Merriman, a writ of habeas corpus has been issued by Judge Taney, returnable this morning in the U. S. District Court. Gen. Cadwallader declined to surrender the prisoner till he heard from Washington. An attachment has been issued for Gen. Cadwallader, returnable to-morrow morning. Merriman is still in Fort McHenry.

No steamer from Fort Monroe will arrive here till Wednesday morning. Troops are rapidly erecting fortifications commanding all the approaches to Baltimore. The western trains are still detained by the Harper's Ferry authorities. No coal trains are arriving.

NEW YORK, May 27.

The relief committee for the Ellsworth fund has received, since its formation last evening, about $500.

Mr. Snowden, of the Alexandria Union, refused to publish Col. Wilcox's proclamation. A squad of printers from the 69th Regiment was detailed to take the office and print the paper.

The force at Harper's Ferry is variously estimated at from 7,000 to 11,000 men.—About two-thirds are equipped and armed. They are undoubtedly very short of provisions, and must be in a starving condition within a week, unless relieved. How they are to be relieved, is a problem the rebel leaders will find it very difficult to solve.

Almost every one that visits Alexandria brings away some memento. The oil cloth on the hall where Ellsworth fell has been cut up and divided. Pieces of the stairs covered with his blood are also cut off and carried away.

There was only one negro in the slave-pen when captured, and being locked in a cell, was overlooked. When released, he was told he could follow his master.

In view of the traitors who have deserted the navy, Com. Paulding has re-formed the entire signal books of the navy.

The New York Tribune's despatch says: The country need not be surprised if, in course of three weeks, a forward movement will be made on Richmond, from reserves entirely separate from the reserves at or near Washington, and which will be so overwhelming in force as to render success certain. The position of Harper's Ferry may be secured by a flank movement.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, May 27.

The battle fought by the telegraph operators on Saturday is like to be the only one that will occur on either side for some time. Military authorities here are free to state on one hand that no further advances to Virginia by federal forces is contemplated at present, and other authentic advices received to-day at the war department indicate that the rebels will strictly preserve the defensive. 4,000 of them have been engaged since yesterday in throwing up fortifications at Manassas Gap, twenty-seven miles west from Alexandria, believing that the federal army would advance to take that point, to cut off the insurgents at Harper's Ferry.

Several Fire Zouaves have been shot by federal sentinels for neglecting to give the countersign. Numbers of the same corps are committing many excesses.

Several outposts of the Michigan Regiments having been treacherously fired upon from ambushes, martial law has been proclaimed in Alexandria county.

Major Ramsey is here, and intends to visit Fortress Monroe in the course of the present week.

Gov. Banks, here by invitation of the government, will certainly be appointed to a high position. He has notified the rail road company that he would resign should the country require his services.

Senator Trumbull and Congressman McClernand are also here, the latter to urge the government to concentrate a large army for operations down the Mississippi at Cairo, and to indemnify Illinois farmers for the loss of southern markets by buying heavily of their surplus produce.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, May 26.

Three more regiments—the 5th Massachusetts, 8th New York and 1st New Jersey—have been sent across the river last night.

No hostilities have as yet occurred.

The federal outposts extend ten miles from the river. There are no rebels nearer than twenty miles.

Three thousand federal troops are working day and night with picks and shovels, throwing up earth works.

Two formidable bastions are erecting—one at the end of Long Bridge and one directly opposite Georgetown, also near the river. Both will be finished at the end of this week, and will sweep the whole of Arlington Heights.

The Fire Zouaves and Michiganites are still occupying Alexandria.

Twelve other regiments have positions between Alexandria and Georgetown. Encampments are forming almost a straight line between the two places.

I can state authoritatively that no further advance in Virginia will be made until after the completion of the fortifications.

All encampments were connected to-day by telegraph lines with the head quarters of Gen. Mansfield in the city.

The 7th regiment is to encamp on this side of the river this evening. The members all worked in trenches as industriously as any.

There are still nearly twenty thousand troops concentrated within the limits of the capital.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, May 27.

Gov. Yates is in Washington with Senator Trumbull, for the purpose of urging upon the war department and the President the paramount necessity of accepting into the service of the United States, for three years, the entire sixteen regiments, together with the battallion of artillery and the regiment of dragoons raised in Illinois since the governor's proclamation of the 16th of April. They will also urge the claim of Illinois to the appointment of two additional brigadier and one major general, to be elected from her own sons. It is believed the mission will be a successful one.

$100,000 in "stump-tail" have been received at the auditor's office to-day, and since the first of April have been retired and bonds received therefor.

Mr. Treasurer Butler informs me that he had offers for the million loan to-day, first advertised at one hundred two, when in New York, three weeks since.

SLOOPS OF WAR BEING CONSTRUCTED.—The Secretary of the Navy is anticipating the appropriation of the last congress, for the construction of eleven sloops of war, which belong to the next fiscal year. The keels of four are laid, at Portsmouth, New York, Philadelphia and Charleston, while the others will be left to private enterprise and competition.

OHIO PUBLIC WORKS.—The Ohio legislature has disposed of the canal question. There is to be a public letting of the canals on the 29th of May. No bid is to be accepted under $20,000 over and above the expenses.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 27.

Times has a letter from Peter Hall, of western Virginia, saying that state troops are constantly coming in bringing arms, and we are anxiously looking for help from Ohio to drive them off, and I hope they will come soon.

The little county of Taylor gave 700 majority against secession. The vote in Grafton was 451 against secession.

One of the traitors standing guard last night shot a good Union man as he was passing, going to town. Fathers are against sons and brothers against brothers.

We have force enough in our town, but we have no authority to act under, we want a U. S. officer to lead.

WASHINGTON, May 27.

The Times' special despatch says—There has been a mistake concerning the naval force now at or near Sewall Point. The navy department says there should be only the Monticello and two small single gun boats there. The Minnesota ought to be by this time off Charleston, South Carolina, blockading that harbor. If there has been an attack, therefore, upon Sewall Point, as has been reported the past few days, in which the Minnesota was engaged, she disobeyed her orders, which is not at all probable.

Herald's despatch says—Davis and Beauregard are expected at Richmond to-day. Defences are being constructed outside of Richmond. All the bridges on the Alexandria railroad have been burned.

Proposals will soon be issued for forty steam gun boats, 1500 tons each.

Gov. Banks favors putting an army of 300,000 men in the field so that the difficulties be speedily settled.

WASHINGTON, May 28.

The belief that the President has determined to tender Col. Fremont a Maj. Generalship elicits much gratification.

The Washington city council have passed a resolution of respect to Col. Ellsworth.

Patriotic Mass Meeting at Indian Ford.

There will be a meeting of the citizens of Fulton and adjoining town, at Indian Ford, on Wednesday the 5th of June, 1861, at 1 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of testifying their feelings of loyalty towards the government in the present crisis, and to manifest their determination to aid in putting down treason against the United States wherever it may be found. Messrs. Armstrong, Comstock, Ebbetts and Patterson will be present and address the people. A general invitation is extended to all patriotic citizens to be present. By order of the committee. EDWIN SCOFIELD,

Deputy Marshal.

A. J. Sutherland, whose appointment as U. S. Deputy Marshal we noticed a day or two since, we understand has been assigned the counties of Iowa, Lafayette, Grant, Green and Rock as his district. Mr. Sutherland's residence is in Monroe, Green county.

War Items.

SURGEON GENERAL U. S. ARMY.—It is understood that the death of Brig. General Lawson, as surgeon-general of the United States army, will be filled by the appointment of Dr. Clement A. Finley, at present senior surgeon.

SECRET SERVICE FUND.—After a sharp fight, the Assembly yesterday passed the Senate bill, appropriating to the governor $10,000 for the extraordinary services of the executive department. This state is giving sufficient indications of having a "full hand" in the fight.—Madison Argus.

READY MADE HOUSES.—A contract has been made with a New York house for 500 ready made houses for Cuba, which will consume about a million feet of lumber.

THE THIRD REGIMENT.—It is expected that the 3d regiment will go into camp at Fond du Lac. Efforts have been made to procure such an order, and with promise of success. It is understood, although no commission has yet been issued, that the government has appointed Capt. C. S. Hamilton, of Fond du Lac, Colonel of the 3d regiment, and that Bertine Pinckney, of Rosendale, will be Major of the regiment. —Ripon Times.

FORT PICKENS NOT TO BE ATTACKED "AT PRESENT!"—The Montgomery correspondent of the New Orleans Delta suggests that there will be no rash haste made in attacking Fort Pickens. He writes under date of May 18th:

"For a day or two past the opinion has been freely expressed by several well-informed citizens, that the government does not contemplate the initiation of hostilities at Pensacola. The simple occupation of Fort Pickens by the enemy is not regarded as being detrimental either to the honor or to the interest of the country, and that the only object this confederacy has in view, in the maintenance of a large army in Florida is to protect and retain possession of the Pensacola navy yard. If this opinion proves true—and the procrastinated peaceful attitude of our army entitles it to some consideration—then will our troops have the opportunity to manifest their zeal for the southern cause, and their loyalty to their country, by the suppression of every murmur of disappointment."

The Prairie du Chien Courier states that as the use of the entire property of Fort Crawford, at that place, had been tendered to Gov. Randall for military purposes, the governor commissioned Judge J. P. Atwood of Madison to examine the fort and estimate the expenses needed for repairs and improvements to fit up in readiness for the fourth regiment; and that Judge Atwood had thoroughly inspected the whole work, and would report his estimate of the expense at about $1,500. The Courier adds, "Judge Atwood said that there is no doubt but Fort Crawford would be occupied by the fourth regiment. Whichever regiment is quartered in the fort 'Old Zach' built, may depend on having the best, healthiest, and pleasantest quarters of any troops in the state. Capt. Atwood has more friends in this section than he knows of, and their esteem and good wishes attend him."

PATRIOTIC SOCIALISTS.—The Harmony Society, of Beaver county, Pa., have deposited $5,000 in the Bank at New Brighton, to the order of Daniel Agnew, chairman of the committee of safety, for such general purposes as the war movements may require. This society consists of men of advanced age and peaceful pursuits, too old for active defence, but they are patriotic, and determined to do all that loyal citizens can do for a government which they love.

The most extraordinary instance of patience on record in modern times, is that of an Illinois Judge, who listened silently for two days while a couple of worthy attorneys contended about the construction of an act of the legislature, and then ended the controversy by quietly saying: "Gentlemen, the law is repealed."

Assassination of Col. Ellsworth.

Dispatch to the New York Tribune.

WASHINGTON, May 25.

Col. Ellsworth is killed. He was shot dead while descending the stairs of the Marshall House, with a secession flag which he had torn down from a staff on the roof.

The colonel was shot through the breast by one charge of a double-barreled gun, the other charge entering a wainscoting near him. He fell on his face only exclaiming "My God," and the blood gushed from his wound with such profusion as to drench the entire passage. A few seconds afterwards he uttered a low moan, but his eyes were instantly fixed, and he had ceased to breathe. He was laid upon a bed in a room near at hand, with the rebel flag stained with his blood, and now a trophy to his glory, about his feet.

The man who killed him was James W. Jackson, who proved to be the keeper of the house.

He must have died as suddenly. He was shot through the head, and afterward run through the body by the saber bayonet of the same private. His wife presently discovered the fatality, and approaching the body uttered the most agonizing cries, and although treated with the utmost consideration that could be offered her in her misery, she remained for a long time in the wildest state of frenzy.

The house was in the utmost confusion. The lodgers darted from their rooms, but were held in control by the four or five Zouaves who accompanied the Colonel and who at once established and maintained order. It was a long time before a reinforcement arrived, and it was almost thought that we might be hemmed in by the number of persons in the house, which was considerable. But the trepidation was too much for any organization, and nothing of the sort was attempted, although I think that the Zouaves, mad with grief at the loss of their leader, would have been but little disappointed if it had been.

Surgeon Gray made an examination, and discovered that the slugs from the gun entered between the third and fifth rib, shattering the fourth rib, and pushed into the left auricle of the heart, destroying all the integuments with which it came in contact.

Special to the New York Herald.

Col. Ellsworth's remains are deposited in a neat little engine house of the navy yard, the fire apparatus having been removed. They are still clad in his uniform, the breast being shockingly lacerated by the slug shot. They were sewed up in a red blanket. The body rests on a small bench covered with the national flag, with a wreath of flowers upon the breast. The building was draped in flags and crape, and a detachment of the 71st detailed to guard it. All the flags in the city are displayed at half mast, in honor of the gallant deceased. The fact of his death was kept two hours from his men, to prevent demonstrations of violence.

It is stated that when he received the fatal shot he dropped his sword, and seizing hold of his clothing over his breast, tore it entirely off, and looking down upon the wound, closed his eyes and fell down dead without uttering a word. Before hauling down the secession flag himself, he politely but vainly, requested his murderer to remove the odious emblem.

The body of Col. Ellsworth was brought over in charge of six zouaves. The wildest grief is exhibited by the members of the regiment. Before wrapping the secession flag around him, Ellsworth had trampled it under foot.

I called at the White House this morning, with Senator Wilson of Massachusetts, to see the President on a pressing matter of public business, and as we entered the library we remarked the President standing before a window looking out across the Potomac, running at the foot of the presidential grounds. He did not move until we approached very closely, when he turned round abruptly, and advanced toward us extending his hand. "Excuse me," he said, "I cannot talk." We supposed his voice had given way from some cause or other, and we were just about to inquire, when, to our surprise, the President burst into tears and concealed his face in his handkerchief.

After composing himself somewhat, the President took his seat, and desired us to approach. "I will make no apology, gentlemen," said the President, "for my weakness; but I knew poor Ellsworth well, and held him in great regard. Just as you entered the room, Capt. Fox left me, after giving me the painful details of Ellsworth's unfortunate death. The event was so unexpected, and the recital so touching, that it quite unmanned me." The President here made a violent effort to restrain his emotion, and after a pause he proceeded, with a tremulous voice, to give us the incidents of the tragedy as they had occurred. "Poor fellow," repeated the President, as he closed his relation, "it was undoubtedly an act of rashness, but it only shows the heroic spirit that animates our soldiers, from high to low, in this righteous cause of ours. Yet who can restrain their grief to see them fall in such a way as this, not by the fortunes of war, but by the hand of an assassin?" Towards the close of his remarks he added: "There is one fact that has reached me, which is a great consolation to my heart, and quite a relief after this melancholy affair. I learn from several persons, that when the stars and stripes were raised again in Alexandria, many of the people of the town actually wept for joy and manifested the liveliest gratification at seeing this familiar and loved emblem once more floating above them. This is another proof that all the south is not secessionists; and it is my earnest hope that as we advance we shall find as many friends as foes."

At this moment Senator Chandler was announced, and he related to the President some interesting details of the capture of the rebel dragoons, which was effected so quickly that they had not time to mount their horses. It appears that the valiant Senator accompanied "his boys," as he called the Michigan regiment, down to Alexandria, and came back quite satisfied with the whole performance. Though we remarked that by this time the President was quite himself again, still we thought it was not a fitting moment to open a discussion of the matter which had brought us to the White House, so we took our leave without referring to it.

Col. Ellsworth was quite a favorite with the president and his family. The Col. accompanied the president as one of his suit from Springfield before Mr. Lincoln's inauguration. He afterwards rendered very great assistance in a clerical way. The president admired him for the wonderful energy he displayed with his company of Chicago Zouaves with which he made a tour of the United States. This tribute to the memory of Col. Ellsworth is highly commendable in the president, and will be appreciated by the military of the United States.

Mrs. Lincoln visited the navy yard this afternoon to view the remains, and inquired for young Brownell, who slew the murderer. He was present in the guard of honor, and was introduced and held a conversation with Mrs. Lincoln upon the particulars of the sad event. It is not improbable that promotion will be the reward of his devoted gallantry.

From the favorable opinions of Agriculturalists and others using these Engines and Pumps, together and separate, the following are selected:

Pumps, Without Engine.

In a half hour at ordinary pumping speed, I supply my stock of from forty to fifty head of cattle and horses, with one of May's Patent Pumps. Well 70 feet deep, last 30 feet drilled. I can find no fault with this pump, and use it in place of another kind that was very often out of repair. Being composed of few and strong pieces, and built on scientific principles, I think they must be very durable. R. W. SCHENCK.

Bradford, Rock county, Wis., January 29th, 1861.

I supply with water 600 sheep, some 60 head of cattle and 10 head of horses, with May's Patent Pump. Its great strength, apparent durability and above all the great amount of water it raises in a short time, and its easy working, gives it with me a decided preference over any other pump in the market.

C. M. CLARK.

Whitewater, Walworth Co., Wis., Jan. 31st, 1861.

Since the 1st of October last we have been using one of May's Patent Pumps, and it gives us entire satisfaction. Our well is 126 feet deep and the pump is worked by horse power or by hand. In addition to pumping water for stock and farm purposes, we use large quantities for our Brewery. REEVES & WAEDLE.

Middleton, Dane county, Wis., Jan. 22d, 1861.

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps in place of a deep well pump of another kind, that was often out of order and worked hard. Well 122 feet deep, 72 feet drilled in solid rock, and pump placed 101 feet from surface. Its great strength and simplicity pleases me, and am surprised and gratified with the large amount of water raised with little labor, 6 to 8 full strokes of the lever filling a bucket. I deem it one of the most valuable improvements of the age for raising water.

JOHN TRACY.

Center, Rock county, Wis., Feb. 27th, 1861.

Pumps, With Engines.

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps and Self-Regulating Wind Engine (or Mill) on one of my farms near Janesville. Well 83 feet deep. Pump and mill used together, or may be separated in a moment. One to two hours daily is sufficient to pump water for my stock. Also, the pump works very easy by hand and is the first one, after trying different kinds, that gives me entire satisfaction. Having no bolts, packing, suction pipe, or pumping rods, and being made heavy and strong, think they must be very durable. A. HOSKINS.

Janesville, Jan. 11th, 1861.

I am using a wind engine, and pump of May's patent in a well 65 feet deep. I deem them very valuable improvements, and agree with Mr. Hoskins in the above expressed opinion. I had been using a Seneca Falls pump that did not answer my purpose.

WM. SCHENCK.

Bradford, Rock Co., Wis., Jan. 24th, 1861.

Engines.

Rock Terrace, Wis., Feb. 6th, 1861.

Since November 1858, I have been using one of May's Patent Wind Engines, pumping water from a well 186 feet deep. The Engine is a powerful one, often pumping fifty barrels of water per day. It stands 110 feet from the well and the power is communicated from the Engine to the well, underground.

I deem these Engines of great value, saving a vast amount of hard manual labor, and as their merits are understood, think they must come into general use.

J. V. ROBBINS.

These pumps and engines have taken first premiums when exhibited in competition at state and county fairs.

Write for price lists &c., and if estimates are wanted give depth of well—open or drilled, and amount of water required. Address as above.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.
